American Gladiators Champion—Cheryl Ann Silich—doesn't simply tell others how to succeed; she models success for them using the voice of experience. Nothing has stopped her from chasing—and catching—her dreams. Not even a severe, genetic speech impediment. In fact, ever since the day her father taught her how to stand on her head, she has seen the world differently. Today, this 13-time national award-winning children's film producer and star of Adventures in Oz with Cheryl is not afraid to be human—or imperfect. She knows the truth, however raw and personal, is powerful. She knows what works and she shares it with others. Cheryl's "if I can do it, you can, too" attitude offers inspiration for every person and occasion. Her message is powerful; that's her magic!
